

Haruki Murakami Abroad

Today's Goal

- I am capable of retelling the story of chapter 1

<Pre-reading>

Look at the six pictures. Ask your partner five questions below. Take turns. [5 minutes]

1. What are students interested in at a Canadian university?
2. What were Japanese people seen in the 1980s?
3. How did the image of Japan change after the economic bubble?
4. Who did the author meet at a gathering of Murakami translators?
5. How did the author feel at the gathering?

<While-reading>

Silent reading

Open the textbook and read the text silently. Check the answers of the previous questions.

Vocabulary Input

Match the correct Japanese words from the bottom. [3 minutes]

	English	カナ	Examples
1	In those days		In those days, many families had four or five children.
2	to participate in		I was asked to participate in the speech contest.
3	to feel comfortable		I don't feel comfortable with new people.
4	literature		He has read the famous works (作品) of Italian literature.
5	economic		The government is trying to improve economic growth.
6	tremendously		My friend in Dubai is tremendously rich.
7	to dream of		She dreamed of becoming a chef.

- ア) とても イ) に参加する ウ) 文学 エ) を夢見る オ) 精神的に心地いい
 カ) 当時は キ) 経済の ク) だと錯覚する

Quick reading 1

Read chapter 1 silently and understand the main points. (m s)

Detailed questions [5 minutes]

1. Why was student interested in Japanese literature high thirty years ago?

2. Why is Japanese literature still popular among Canadian students now?

3. Why was the writer surprised at the gathering of translators?

Reading Practice

- ① Let's practice reading the story with your teacher.
- ② Read it again in a soft voice (whispering) by yourself.
- ③ Shadowing with your classmates.

Quick reading 2

Read the text silently and understand the details. (m s)

<Post-reading>

Retelling

- Look at the six pictures you used in pre-reading. Retell the story to your partner without looking at the text!
- Play janken-pon. Winners start from the first picture. Please change the role in each picture.

Homework

Write down the explanation of each picture in your notebook.

Please make sure that the story goes from picture ① to ⑥.

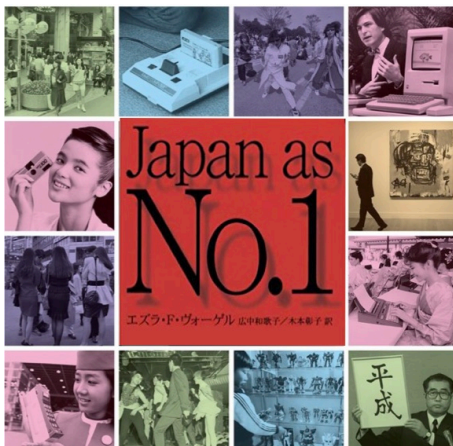

① At a Canadian University

② Why?

③ In the 1980s in Japan

④ After the economic bubble

⑤ At a gathering of Murakami translators

⑥ When the author saw the gathering

