

Let's learn the rules in the world!

Step 1. Let's check the rules in Japan.

動作
	(Yes · No)
	(Yes · No)
	(Yes · No)

Step 2. Please listen carefully and answer the questions.

1. We (have / have to) take off our shoes in the house.
2. We (have to / don't have to) be quiet on the train.
3. We don't (have / have to) (give / gave) a tip.

Step 3. Grammar point

主語が三人称単数形の時
has to / doesn't have to

We have to take off our shoes in the house.

We don't have to take off our shoes in the house.

"have to~"とは ( ) という意味になる。

"don't have to ~"と否定形になると ( ) という意味になる。

have to の後ろは (動詞の ) に来る。

疑問形は _____ ~となる。

Work sheet A

Step 4. Let's learn the rules in the world.

America 	Australia 	Russia
	have to save water
Senegal 	Italy 	Mexico
don't have to go to school		don't have to wear a shirt in a lot of places

Model dialogue Japan: have to be quiet on the train の場合

A: Hello. How are you?

B: I'm (fine / good / so-so). How about you?

A: I'm (fine / good / so-so). Please tell me the rule in Japan.

B: Okay. In Japan, people have to be quiet on the train.

A: In Japan, people have to be quiet on the train.

Rejoinders.

• I see. • Really? • O.K.

※Change your role

Step 5 Step 4 で使った表現を have to と don't have to を使い 1文ずつ書こう！

Work sheet B

Step 4. Let's learn the rules in the world.

America 	Australia 	Russia
don't have to be quiet on the train		have to go to friend's house 10 minutes late
Senegal 	Italy 	Mexico
	have to say "Hello." and "See you." at shops

Model dialogue Japan: have to be quiet on the train の場合

A: Hello. How are you?

B: I'm (fine / good / so-so). How about you?

A: I'm (fine / good / so-so). Please tell me the rule in Japan.

B: Okay. In Japan, people have to be quiet on the train.

A: In Japan, people have to be quiet on the train.

Rejoinders.

※Change your role

• I see. • Really? • O.K.

Step 5 Step 4 で使った表現を have to と don't have to を使い 1文ずつ書こう！