

ルールを守ろう

Step 1: Listen to the teacher, and fill in the blanks.

	どんなルール？
1
2
3
4

Step 2: Listen to the teacher, and draw a circle on your answer.

- ①Coronavirus is dangerous now. So, you (must / can) wear a mask in a restaurant.
- ②People are silent in a hospital. So, you (must not / cannot) talk aloud in a hospital.
- ③In Japanese houses, you (must take / must took) off your shoes.
- ④The traffic light is red.
So, you (must not walk / must not walking) across the road.

Step 3: Grammar Check

【must / must not】

In Japanese houses, you must take off your shoes.

意味()

The traffic light is red. So, you must not walk across the road.

意味()

()+動詞の原型で、「～しないとといけない」という意味、

()+()+動詞の原形で、「～してはいけない」

という意味になる。

Step 4: Activity: Road Sign Quiz

Model Dialog (Play Janken. Winner is A)

A: Hello, how are you?

B: I'm (fine/ happy/ hungry/ etc...). How about you?

A: I'm (fine/ happy/ hungry/ etc...). Anyway, let's play a rule quiz.

B: Sure.

A: What does sign A mean?

B: I think it means we must wear a mask.

(正解の場合)

A: Sure! Sign A means we must wear a mask. (Change the roles)

(不正解の場合)

A: No... Please try again.

Step 5: Write your sentences.
