

Lesson10 part4 How can we improve the situation?

Step 1 Small talk

- Where do you buy your food?
- Have you ever checked where the food you ate comes from?

Step 2 vocabulary input

1. I like taking a local train. ()
2. He doesn't realize me. ()
3. My grandfather is a farmer. ()
4. We should reduce CO2 emission(二酸化炭素排出量). ()
5. I have a solution of this problem. ()

(ア) 地元の

(エ) 農民

(イ) ~に気付く

(オ) ~を減らす

(ウ) 解決策・解決方法

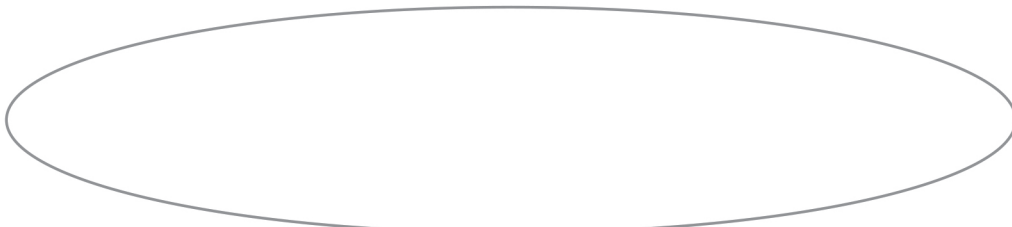

Step 3 Skimming the story and talking with your partner, then answer the T or F questions.

[T or F]

- In order to make a positive change, the word “local” is the key. (T / F)
- Yesterday the author bought some meat from a nearby super-market. (T / F)
- Eating local food in season is good. (T / F)

Step 4 Listen to the CD

Step 5 Timed reading

Step 6 vocabulary output

1. I like taking a (_____) train.
2. He doesn't (_____) me.
3. My grandfather is a (_____).
4. We should (_____) CO2 emission(二酸化炭素排出量).
5. I have a (_____) of this problem.

local solution farmer reduce realize

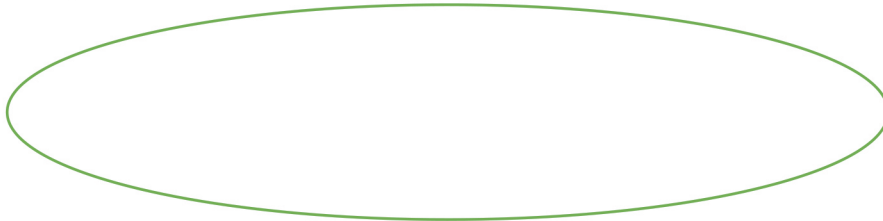

Step 6 Grammar points

関係副詞の Why : the reason の後で、どのような理由か説明する。

- Do you know the reason why "local" is so popular?

Why 以降が理由

Step 7 Timed reading

Step 8 T or F

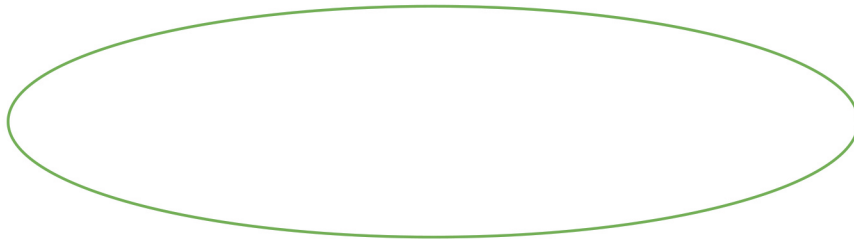

1. People have to have come to understand the good effect of local actions. (T/F)
2. Kenta's family enjoyed fresh vegetables they bought from local farms. (T/F)
3. Growing food out of season is necessary in order to increase food production. (T/F)

Step 9 Detailed questions

1. What are the benefits of buying locally?
2. What are the suggestions that Kenta made in his presentations?

Step 10 shadowing

Step 11 Timed reading

Step 12 Retailing the story

P1
positive change
the word "local"
popular
realize the benefits

P2
vegetables	support
nearby	local famers
Chinese cabbage	reduce
onion	import
fresh and delicious

P3
good idea
eat
season
Co2

P4
act
part of solution
problem

Step 13 Timed conversation

1. What is your favorite food? Why?
2. Do you make an effort to eat foods produced in Japan? Why or why not?
3. What would happen if all food imports stopped? Can you guess?
4. Do you think "food miles" should be reduced? Why?
5. Do you agree with this author's idea? Why?
6. What else can you do to protect the environment?